HEARTWOOD APPOINTS KIRSTY MACARTHUR AS RELATIONSHIP DIRECTOR

Heartwood, the independently owned wealth manager, has expanded and further strengthened its client services team with the appointment of Kirsty MacArthur as Relationship Director. She will be joining the company in December and will report to Guy Hudson, Head of Client Services and Distribution.

Kirsty will be based in Heartwood's London office. Her key responsibilities will be to introduce Heartwood's investment and wealth management services to new client relationships. She joins Heartwood from UBS AG where she was responsible for advising ultra high net worth clients across the sport, media and private equity sectors. Prior to UBS she worked at Coutts & Co where she advised on a broad range of wealth management services including asset management, tax planning and credit financing to high net worth clients within the sports and entertainment fields as well as other sectors.

Kirsty is an appointed trustee of the charity Sports Fund which aims to help children participate in sport. She was also a member of the Scotland Lacrosse squad.

Guy Hudson commented: "Heartwood has enjoyed an excellent year of progress in exceptionally challenging circumstances, and it is a measure of our confidence in our future that we are adding to our talented client services team. In seeking new Relationship Directors to join Heartwood, a willingness to embrace Heartwood's client focused culture was a key criterion and Kirsty has a really excellent record in the provision of wealth management services to clients in a wide range of sectors. It's testament to Heartwood's continuing evolution that we are able to attract highly talented advisers such as Kirsty to the firm and we look forward to working with her to continue growing our client base."
